

REMARKS

This is a full and timely response to the outstanding Office Action mailed July 20, 2010. The Examiner is thanked for the thorough examination of the present application. Upon entry of this response, claims 1-4, 7-21 and 24-34 are pending in the present application. Applicant respectfully requests consideration of the following remarks contained herein.

I. Oath/Declaration

The Examiner maintains that the oath/declaration is defective. Applicant's representative Jeffrey Hsu (Registration No. 63,063) has had various telephonic discussions with Examiner Wu regarding the oath/declaration. In accordance with Examiner Wu's recommendation, Applicant notes that a second renewed petition under 37 C.F.R. §1.47(b) was submitted on October 14, 2010. At the time of this submission, a decision by the Office of Petitions on the renewed petition remains pending.

II. Specification

Applicant has amended the title and respectfully request that the objection be withdrawn.

III. Response to Examiner's Comment

On page 2, the Examiner takes the position that "computer-readable storage medium" as recited in claims 18-21 and 24-34 refers to "non-transitory media such as disk storage, tape, etc. in light of the commonly known definition of the term "storage media" as defined in Microsoft Computer Dictionary Fifth Edition." Applicant agrees that computer-readable storage medium refers to non-transitory media and notes that this element recited in various claims is not limited to the examples provided by the Examiner.

IV. Allowable Subject Matter

Applicant thanks the Examiner for the indication on page 2 of the Office Action that claims 1-4, 7-21 and 24-34 are allowed. Applicant substantially agrees with the Examiner's reasons for allowance in the Office Action. Applicant would like to emphasize that the combination of elements in each of the allowed claims, independent and dependent, are patentably distinguishable over the prior art when each claim is interpreted as a whole.

CONCLUSION

Applicant respectfully submits that all pending claims are in condition for allowance. Favorable reconsideration and allowance of the present application and all pending claims are hereby courteously requested. If, in the opinion of the Examiner, a telephone conference would expedite the examination of this matter, the Examiner is invited to call the undersigned attorney at (770) 933-9500.

No fee is believed to be due in connection with this response to Office Action. If, however, any fee is believed to be due, you are hereby authorized to charge any such fee to deposit account No. 20-0778.

Respectfully submitted,

/ Jeffrey Hsu /
